- Take a photo of your entry, with or without you in it. Note: By submitting a photo, you are giving us permission to use that photo on our social media, website, or in our print publication.
- Post and tag us on Instagram (bozeman_hawktawk) OR email your photo to hawktawkeditor@gmail.com
- If you're sending an email, please include your name, school and grade level.
- Submit your entry by midnight on Friday, April 24.

PRIZES + WINNERS

- Winners will be announced on Thursday, April 30 on our Instagram page and in our newspaper.
- Because of social distancing and health department guidelines, we won't be sending out prizes until it is safe to do so. But we will announce our winners right away! And we promise to get prizes to winners eventually, no matter how long it takes.
- The prizes are:
 - First Place: Pop Tarts T-Shirt, a giant box of Pop Tarts, plus bragging rights.
 - Second Place: Giant box of Pop Tarts, plus bragging rights.
 - Third Place: A regular box of Pop Tarts, plus bragging rights.

ABOUT THE ARTISTS

- Andy Tallman is a senior at Bozeman High School and Hawk Tawk's co-editor in chief. She's been doing art for 10 years and will talk to you endlessly about superhero comics if you let her. Andy's drawing is called "Working From Home." "It's a drawing of me at my workspace, missing BHS," Andy explains.
- Macy Duncan is a senior at BHS, and is a first year writer for Hawk Tawk. She loves design and contributing to the paper with her art, which she has been developing for over a decade now (with much progress)! Her piece is titled "Social Not Emotional Distance" and is intended to provide a bit of comfort in such uncertain times.
